FACTS AND FIGURES

.820

Senior PK Nate Freese leads the ACC and ranks fifth nationally among all placekickers in the NCAA's FBS in active career field-goal percentage. Freese has made 50 of his 61 field-goal attempts, an .820 field-goal percentage. Freese is tied for third nationally with Virginia Tech's Cody Journell and Clemson's Chris Catanzaro among active career leaders for field goals per game (1.4).

The Eagles have produced a top-10 pick in the NFL Draft three times in the last six years – QB Matt Ryan (3rd; Atlanta Falcons, 2008), DT B.J. Raji (9th; Green Bay Packers, 2009) and LB Luke Kuechly (9th; Carolina Panthers, 2012).

Boston College had one of its former linebackers on three straight Super Bowl winning teams – Mark Herzlich (NY Giants, 2012), Jo-Lonn Dunbar (Saints, 2011) and Robert Flores (Packers, 2010).

Boston College senior WR Alex Amidon, a 2012 first-team All-ACC selection, topped the 100-yard mark six times in receiving yardage last year in setting BC single-season records with 1,210 receiving yards and 78 catches. Amidon was 11th nationally in receiving yards per game.

Senior PK Nate Freese leads the ACC and ranks fifth nationally in active career field goal percentage (.820).

Boston College was the most represented collegiate football program in Super Bowl XLVI as there were six former Eagles that were on either the New England Patriots roster or the New York Giants roster – defensive end Ron Brace '08 and center Dan Koppen '02, roster members of the Patriots, and cornerback Will Blackmon '06, linebacker Mark Herzlich '10, defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka '05 and guard Chris Snee '04 were each roster members of the Giants.

9.0

Boston College senior LB Kevin Pierre-Louis ranked seventh in the ACC in tackles per game last fall, averaging 9.0 tackles per game. Pierre-Louis' predecessors at linebacker, All-America Luke Kuechly and All-ACC Nick Clancy finished first, first and third nationally in tackles per game over the last three seasons.

Boston College has produced nine NFL Draft first-round picks in the last 13 seasons (since 2000).

BC NFL first-round draft picks (since 2000):

YEAR	NAME	POS.	TEAM	RD.	PICK
2012	Luke Kuechly	LB	Panthers	1	9
2011	Anthony Castonzo	OT	Colts	1	22
2009	B.J. Raji	DT	Packers	1	9
2008	Matt Ryan	QB	Falcons	1	3
2008	Gosder Cherilus	OT	Lions	1	17
2006	Mathias Kiwanuka	DE	Giants	1	32
2002	William Green	RB	Browns	1	16
2002	Marc Colombo	OT	Bears	1	29
2000	Chris Hovan	DT	Vikings	1	25

QB Chase Rettig has recorded 33 starts entering his senior campaign in 2013.

10

LB Luke Kuechly became Boston College's 10th consensus All-America honoree in 2011. He became the school's first two-time consensus All-American the next season. BC's previous consensus All-America selections are DB Jamie Silva (2007), RB Mike Cloud (1998), TE Pete Mitchell (1994), DL Mike Ruth (1985), QB Doug Flutie (1984), WR Tony Thurman (1984), FB Mike Holovak (1942), end Gene Goodreault (1940) and Luke Urban (1920).

25.3

WR Spiffy Evans averaged 25.3 yards on his 11 punt returns last fall, a figure that could have led the nation had he had enough returns to qualify. Evans was named a third-team preseason All-America returner by Phil Steele. BC led the nation as a team in punt return average in 2012 (21.69).

33

QB Chase Rettig enters the 2013 season having registered 33 career starts in three seasons. A 6-foot-3, 213-pound senior from San Clemente, Calif., Rettig recorded his first collegiate start in the fourth game of his freshman season against Notre Dame (Oct. 2, 2010), suffered a foot injury against the Irish and missed the following week's game at NC State (Oct. 19, 2010). Rettig has started each game since. Only seven quarterbacks nationwide enter the season having recorded more career starts than Rettig — Georgia's Aaron Murray (41), Nebraska's Taylor Martinez (39), Louisiana-Monroe's Kolton Browning (36), Troy's Corey Robinson (36), SMU's Garrett Gilbert (34) and Wake Forest's Tanner Price (34).

88

BC won 88 games in the 2000s (2000-09, including bowls), tying Auburn and Southern California for 11th among all teams in college football. Only 10 teams — Boise State (112), Oklahoma (110), Texas (110), Ohio State (102), Florida (100), LSU (99), Virginia Tech (99), Georgia (98), TCU (95) and Miami (92) — achieved more victories during the 2000s. Bookended with an 8-4 campaign in 1999 and a 7-6 season in 2010, BC captured 103 victories in 12 straight winning seasons from 1999-2010.

Head Coach Steve Addazio

COACHES AND STAFF

HEAD COACH STEVE ADDAZIO

Steve Addazio is in his first season as head coach at Boston College. He was named the school's 35th head football coach on Dec. 4, 2012. Addazio brings with him to the Heights 26 years of coaching experience, 12 postseason bowl games (including six BCS bowl games in the last 17 seasons) and two national titles while on the coaching staff at the University of Florida (a 41-14 win over Ohio State on Jan. 8, 2007 in Glendale, Ariz., and a 24-14 win over Oklahoma on Jan. 8, 2009 in Miami, Fla.).

Prior to his arrival in Chestnut Hill, Addazio led the Temple University Owls in a two-year period of success, transition and growth. Hired by Temple on Dec. 23, 2010, Addazio coached the Owls to a nine-win campaign and a bowl victory for the first time in 32 seasons in his first year as head coach. His 2011 team finished the season with a 9-4 record, earning a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division and capturing a 37-15 victory over Wyoming in the New Mexico Bowl—Temple's first bowl victory since Wayne Hardin led the Owls to a 38-3 win over California in the 1979 Garden State Bowl. On Addazio's watch, three Temple players were selected in the 2012 NFL Draft — RB Bernard Pierce (3rd round), TE Evan Rodriguez (4th), and LB Tahir Whitehead (5th) — and nine signed free agent contracts. Meanwhile, Addazio spearheaded the school's 2012 recruiting class to a No.1 ranking in the Mid-American Conference by Rivals.com.

Shortly thereafter, in March 2012, Temple announced that it would move from the Mid-American Conference to the Big East Conference for football that fall. While guiding the program through its transition in conference affiliation, Addazio led the team to victories in each of its first two Big East Conference games (against South Florida and Connecticut), later posting a 63-point, school-record scoring output against Army before finishing the 2012 campaign with a 4-7 record.

Additionally, while at Temple, Addazio oversaw the design and implementation of the Edberg-Olson Hall expansion project – a $9 million renovation and expansion to the football facility aimed to strengthen the recruiting advantage and provide stronger support to the student-athletes – throughout his two years in Philadelphia. The project included the expansion of the strength and conditioning area from 2,500 square feet to nearly 10,000 square feet and the addition of a full-service academic support area, a 3,500-square-foot team function room and an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy capabilities.

Prior to leading the Owls, Addazio spent six seasons (2005-10) at Florida under head coach Urban Meyer, serving as offensive coordinator in 2009-10 and interim head coach from Dec. 2009 to July 2010. During his tenure in Gainesville, the Gators participated in six postseason bowls and won two BCS national championships. Addazio joined the Gators' staff as tight ends coach in 2005 and also served as offensive line, tackles and tight ends coach (2006), offensive line coach (2007) and offensive assistant head coach (2008) prior to being named offensive coordinator.

Addazio tutored Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Tim Tebow and directed an offense with a total of seven NFL draftees, including first-round picks Mike and Maurkice Pouncey, two of the most elite offensive linemen in Florida history. Florida finished the 2009 season ranked first in the SEC in total offense and second in rushing offense, passing offense and scoring offense. In 2009, the Gators were the only team in the nation to rush for more than 3,000 yards and pass for more than 3,000 yards. Addazio completed his tenure at Florida on Jan. 1, 2011, coaching the Gators to a 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl.

Addazio began his Division I college football coaching career in 1995 at Syracuse. The Orange won three consecutive Big East crowns and appeared in bowl games during each of his four years before he assumed assistant coaching duties at Notre Dame, where he served as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1999-2001. Addazio moved on to serve as offensive line coach then offensive coordinator during a three-year stint at Indiana (2002-04) before joining the staff at Florida.

Steve Addazio has coached in 12 postseason bowl games, including six BCS bowl games in the last 17 seasons.

Prior to his Division I collegiate coaching career, he served as one of the nation's top high school coaches at Cheshire High School in Cheshire, Conn., from 1988-95. There, his teams won 34 consecutive games, three state titles in a row and were nationally ranked in 1992 and 1994.

A native of Farmington, Conn., Addazio, 54, began his coaching career at Western Connecticut State University, where he served as an assistant coach under Paul Pasqualoni from 1984-87.

A graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Addazio earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1981. A four-year starter for the Blue Devils on the offensive and defensive lines, Addazio completed a master's degree in 1985. Addazio earned tryouts with the New England Patriots, the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL, and the Ottawa Roughriders of the CFL.

Born June 1, 1959, Addazio is married to the former Kathleen Donoghue. They have three children – Nicole (age 26), Jessica (23), and Louie (20). Louie is a tight end on the Boston College football team.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Entering his eighth year at Boston College, his first as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach; returned to Boston College after serving as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for one season (2012) at Temple under head coach Steve Addazio.
- Helped lead the Owls in their return to the Big East Conference in 2012 after a seven-year absence. The team won its first two league games and the rushing attack averaged 201.18 yards per game to lead the conference and finish the season ranked No. 31 among all teams in college football. With 1,057 yards on 186 carries, Montel Harris concluded the season as the conference's top rusher.
- Coordinated an offensive output that broke seven school records, including rushing yards in a game, touchdowns in a game and points scored, in Temple's 63-32 win at Army in 2012; RB Montel Harris set Big East records for rushing yards (351) and touchdowns (seven) in the game.
- Served as wide receivers coach at Boston College for five seasons (2007-11); was a member of coaching staffs that clinched consecutive ACC Atlantic Division titles in 2007 and 2008 and berths in the ACC Championship game.

- Prior to joining the Boston College staff as wide receivers coach, Day spent the 2005 season as an offensive graduate assistant under head coach Urban Meyer at the University of Florida, and spent the 2006 season as wide receivers coach under head coach Al Golden at Temple.
- Has coached in seven career bowl games, including six at Boston College – the San Francisco Bowl (2003), the Continental Tire Bowl (2004), the Champs Sports Bowl (2007), the Music City Bowl (2008), the Emerald Bowl (2009) and the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl (2010). Coached in the Outback Bowl (2005) while at Florida.
- Has coached three of the top seven receivers in Boston College history – Rich Gunnell (first; 2,459 yards), Grant Adams (sixth; 2,036 yards) and Brandon Robinson (seventh; 2,023 yards).
- Tutored All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention honoree Rich Gunnell, Boston College's career record holder for receiving yards who broke the school standard previously held by Pete Mitchell against Southern California in the 2009 Emerald Bowl and finished his collegiate career with 2,459 yards, becoming the eighth player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark.
- Has coached and recruited All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honoree Alex Amidon, who established single-season school records for receptions (78) and receiving yards (1,210) in 2012, and Bobby Swigert, who led the team in receptions in each of his first two seasons at Boston College (2010-11) prior to his injury-shortened junior campaign. Swigert and Amidon became the first and second freshmen receivers in school history to record at least 100 receiving yards in a game.
- In 2008, Day had two of the most productive wide receivers in the ACC. Brandon Robinson was eighth in the ACC in receiving yards (646) and 10th in yards per game (46.1) and Gunnell was 10th in the conference in receptions per game (3.5) and 11th in receiving yards (551).

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Played for head coach Sean McDonnell and offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Chip Kelly at the University of New Hampshire.
- Was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Wildcats who served as team captain as a senior in 2001; held four UNH passing records upon graduation, including best passing percentage in a career (59.9, 1997-2001) and touchdown passes in a career (53). His 653 completions rank seventh in Atlantic 10 Conference history.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of New Hampshire in 2002 and a master's degree in administrative studies from Boston College in 2004.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Is in his 27th year coaching and his first as wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Boston College.
- Served as the offensive coordinator at both the University of South Florida (2010-12) and East Carolina (2007-09) prior to joining the Eagles.
- Coached record-setting QB B.J. Daniels at USF who finished his career second in school history and third in Big East history in total offense (10,501) despite missing the last three games of his senior season because of injury.

- Helped the Bulls move up 75 spots in the national rankings in total offense from 2010 to 2011. USF improved its passing offense by 85 yards per game during that span. Only two teams saw a greater jump in the passing offense national rankings, as the Bulls improved 59 spots. In addition, the Bulls improved 39 spots in rushing offense, increasing their output by 38 yards per game.
- Guided USF to its fifth-straight eight-win season in 2010 making the Bulls one of just 15 programs nationally to accomplish the feat.
- Prior to coming to Tampa, Fitch spent three seasons (2007-09) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at East Carolina.
- Spearheaded an offense that broke single-season school records for most points (403) and touchdowns scored (52) in 2007, records that had previously stood for 28 years. During that year, the Pirates' explosive offense ranked first nationally in scoring drives under one minute (23) and seventh in scoring plays 25 yards or longer (18).
- While utilizing two first-year starters, Patrick Pinkney and Rob Kass, throughout the 2007 campaign, ECU turned in its second-highest scoring average since 1991 and tallied 35 or more points in six of eight Conference USA contests before closing the year with a 41-point performance against No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.
- Won consecutive Conference USA championships while at East Carolina in 2008 and 2009; became the first program in league history to win consecutive conference championships.
- Led a Pirate offense that averaged no less than 340 yards of total offense per game in his three seasons.
- A veteran with 26 years of coaching experience, Fitch has also worked under legendary head coaches Don Nehlen, Earle Bruce and Lou Holtz during his career which spans back to 1986 and included stops at alma mater Ohio Wesleyan, Bowling Green, West Virginia and Colorado State.
- Coached the quarterbacks at Iowa State from 2004-06. Tutored All-America performer Bret Meyer who became the Cyclones' career record holder for passing yards (9,499) and passing touchdowns (50).
- Joined Iowa State's staff after spending four seasons (1999-2002) at South Carolina under head coach Lou Holtz and offensive coordinator Skip Holtz. Helped lead the Gamecocks to consecutive Outback Bowl victories in 2001 and 2002.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Played defensive back at Ohio Wesleyan from 1982-85, starting in his final three seasons and earning all-league honors as a senior.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Entering his seventh year coaching and his first as offensive line coach at Boston College; came to the Heights after serving as offensive line coach at Temple University under head coach Steve Addazio for two seasons (2011-12).
- Has worked with head football coach Steve Addazio as a player at Indiana and as a coach at Florida, Temple and Boston College.
- Tutored an offensive line at Temple that blocked for the top rushing offense in the Big East as the Owls rushed for 201.2 yards per game in 2012. All-Big East first-team performer Montel Harris led the conference with 105.4 rushing yards per game.
- In Frye's first season at Temple (2011), the Owl offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Blocking the way were All-MAC offensive linemen Pat Boyle and Wayne Tribue. The starting offensive line combined for 147 starting appearances.

- Served as offensive line graduate assistant at Florida for two years (2009-10).
- Helped mentor future NFL draft picks Maurkice Pouncey, Mike Pouncey, Marcus Gilbert and Maurice Hurt while at Florida.
- Coached the 2010 Gator offensive line that allowed four Florida players to rush for more than 300 yards on the year – one of only six BCS teams to accomplish the feat. The offensive line, which allowed only 24 sacks, had a Sporting News Freshman All-American in guard Jon Halapio and an Associated Press second-team All-SEC performer in center Mike Pouncey. Following a win in the Outback Bowl, tackle Marcus Gilbert and Pouncey were selected to play in the 2011 Senior Bowl.
- Helped tutor Maurkice Pouncey who won the 2009 Rimington Award, given annually to college football's most outstanding center. Additionally, the 2009 offensive line led the Southeastern Conference in rushing and total offense while finishing second in scoring offense.
- Began his coaching career at Indiana University, his alma mater, as an offensive graduate assistant (2007-08) working with the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Played four seasons (2002-06) for the Hoosiers under the tutelage of Steve Addazio as offensive coordinator.
- Captained Indiana as a senior and earned the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman Award.

AWARDS & HONORS

- John Baronian Award, Lifetime Contribution to Football, 2007
- New England Coach of the Year, 1997
- Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame, 1983

Barry Gallup's name is synonymous with Boston College football. Now in his 34th year as a member of the staff, Gallup, one of the best receivers in school history, served as a BC assistant coach for 20 years (1970-91) and Northeastern's head coach for nine years (1991-99) prior to returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director for football operations in May 2000. He was promoted to associate athletics director for football operations in May 2008.

Gallup has dedicated a large part of his life to football in Boston. In early 2007, Gallup received the John Baronian Award for Lifetime Contribution to Football from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston at its annual awards ceremony.

After starring on the football field at Swampscott High for legendary coach Stan Bondelevitch, earning All-America honors as a senior, he entered BC in 1965 and would become the greatest receiver in the school's history before graduating in 1969. He set school marks for receptions with 87 and receiving yards with 1,325 (Mel Briggs eclipsed both of the records in 1973). He had 735 yards and established a season record for catches (46) as a senior (a mark eventually broken by Gallup protégé Brian Brennan in 1983). He also played two years of college basketball for legendary former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy.

Upon graduation, Gallup turned down an offer to play with the Boston Patriots and began his career in teaching and coaching, working in the Swampscott school district. In 1970, he embarked upon a 20-year coaching career with the Eagles when he became a part-time assistant coach at BC. He became a full-time assistant in 1973, coaching the team's defensive line. His role changed to receivers and tight ends coach and head recruiting coordinator when Jack Bicknell arrived as head coach in 1981.

As an assistant first to Joe Yukica, then to Ed Chlebek and finally to Bicknell, Gallup established himself as a top recruiter and football strategist. Gallup played a key role in attracting some of the nation's most talented players to BC, including Heisman Trophy winner and former New England Patriot Doug Flutie, Joe Nash, Fred Smerlas and Peter Cronan. He coached several future professional players while directing the receiving corps, including Brian Brennan (Cleveland Browns), Mark Chmura (Green Bay Packers), Kelvin Martin (Dallas Cowboys), Pete Mitchell (New York Giants), Tom Waddle (Chicago Bears) and the brothers Flutie, Doug and Darren, who both went on to play in the Canadian Football League. As BC's primary recruiter, he was one of the key builders of bowl-bound BC teams in 1982 (Tangerine), '83 (Liberty), '85 (Cotton) and '86 (Hall of Fame). He was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1983.

Gallup took over the Northeastern football program in 1991. After going 4-7 his first year, Gallup built the program into a winner that finished with a 6-5 mark in 1996 and an 8-3 record in 1997. He was named New England Coach of the Year in 1997. His 1998 senior class left as the most successful in school history. He left NU with an overall coaching record of 38-60-1. Before returning strictly to coaching in 1998, Gallup had an eventful four-year tenure as NU's athletics director, during which the department successfully earned NCAA certification, initiated a comprehensive strategic plan to achieve gender equity, and added several prominent coaches, including highly respected hockey coach Bruce Crowder and men's basketball coach Dave Leitao.

Gallup resides in Wellesley with wife, Victoria. Their son Barry Charles Jr. resides in New York City and is engaged to Maggie Rulli '10.

SUPPORT STAFF

STEPHEN BUSHEE

Assistant
Athletics Director,
Sports Medicine

Steve Bushee is entering his 30th year as a member of the Boston College sports medicine staff and is entering his 15th year directing BC's sports medicine. He was promoted to assistant athletic director/sports medicine in 1999.

The Lebanon, N.H., native is a 1981 graduate of Colgate University where he majored in biology. Bushee earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Boston College in 1994.

In May 2001, Colgate honored him with the naming of the Steve Bushee Award, which will be given annually to the Colgate student athletic trainer who demonstrates dedication and expertise in the care of student-athletes.

Bushee works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice. He also tends to the medical needs of BC's skiing and sailing teams.

In addition to standard sports medicine duties, Steve handles the administration of athletic insurance and athletic educational programming; oversees the department's drug testing program; and is a staff liaison with outside medical providers.

During his first four years at the Heights, Bushee was the head athletic trainer for the Eagles' ice hockey team, but has been working with the football program since 1988.

Steve and his wife, Laura, are the parents of two children: Joseph, a Boston College senior, and Elisa, a sophomore at Boston College. The Bushee family resides in Wayland.

REGGIE TERRY

Assistant
Athletics Director,
Football Operations & Player Personnel

Reggie Terry, who spent five seasons (2007-12) as the director of football administration for the Arizona Cardinals, is in his first season as assistant athletics director for football operations and player personnel at Boston College. He was hired in March 2013.

Terry's duties include oversight and management of the football office operation. He is responsible for budgetary oversight, directing team travel and managing player personnel matters. Additionally, Terry administers training and equipment staff needs and is intimately involved in coordination of on-campus visits for recruits.

Prior to joining the Cardinals in June 2007, Terry spent 14 seasons at Syracuse University, serving the last seven years as associate athletic director for football operations. With the Cardinals, Terry's responsibilities included budget planning, managing the day-to-day operations, managing player personnel matters and directing the team's travel.

Terry joined the Syracuse football staff in 2000 as the director of football operations and player development and stayed in that position until being elevated to associate director of athletics for football operations in 2006. At Syracuse, Terry was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, team travel, the team's compliance with NCAA academic requirements, coordination of pro days, youth clinics and camps and an agent education program.

While at Syracuse, Terry helped organize bowl trips for the 2004 Champs Sports Bowl representing the Big East Conference as Co-Champions as well as the 2001 Insight.com Bowl.

Prior to joining the Syracuse football program in 2000, Terry worked as a graduate assistant and administrative supervisor in the Orange athletic department from 1993-1999. He also worked as an intern with the New York Jets football operations department in 1997 before interning with the NFL's Management Council in 1998.

A linebacker at Syracuse (1989-93), Terry was a part of the school's bowl game victories in 1989 (Peach), '90 (Aloha), '92 (Hall of Fame) and '93 (Fiesta).

A native of Hempstead, N.Y., Terry graduated from Syracuse in 1993 with degrees in both history and education. A two-time Big East Conference Academic All-Star, Terry also earned the Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow Scholarship. He received his master's degree in 1994 in education, his C.A.S. in education leadership in 1999 and is currently working on his PhD in higher education at Syracuse.

Terry and his wife, Tamicka, have four children, Ryon, Reggie II, Regen, and Rory.

SHANE MORIN

Assistant Director,
Football

Shane Morin is in his first year as assistant director of football operations at Boston College. He joined the Eagles' staff in April 2013 and works closely with assistant athletics director of football operations Reggie Terry. He is responsible for providing assistance in: coordination of team travel, facilitation of summer football camp logistics, facility management, and all aspects of day-to-day football operations.

Prior to his arrival at the Heights, Morin spent the previous year as an operations assistant with the St. Louis Rams organization. There, he was involved in management of the team's annual preseason training camp and organization and execution of team travel through the 2012 season, which included an international series against the New England Patriots at Wembley Stadium in London, England. He served in a critical role for the organization's travel advance team, was involved with facility management and maintenance and worked closely with the sales and marketing staffs in coordination of player appearances for sponsorship opportunities.

Morin was hired in a full-time capacity by the Rams' organization after having served as a summer intern within the operations office in 2011.

A native of West Hartford, Conn., Morin earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a focus on business administration from the University of New Hampshire in May 2012.

FRANK PIRAINO

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach,
Football

Frank Piraino is in his first season as head strength and conditioning coach for football at Boston College. He came to the Heights after spending each of the last two seasons as head strength and conditioning coach at Temple under head coach Steve Addazio.

In 2010, he was the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Marshall University. Prior to joining the Marshall staff, he served on the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Florida for five years.

Piraino served as the strength and conditioning coordinator for Florida baseball in 2008. Additionally, Piraino assisted in all aspects of the Gator football strength and conditioning program from January 2005 to January 2010. Florida football captured a pair of national championships and Southeastern Conference titles in 2006 and 2008 under the direction of head coach Urban Meyer. Prior to his tenure in Gainesville, Piraino served as a strength and conditioning assistant at Notre Dame in 2004.

As a graduate assistant at Michigan State from 2003-04, Piraino assisted in the planning and execution of the strength and conditioning programs for the men's and women's basketball and hockey teams as well as the football team.

From 2000-03, Piraino served as an assistant football coach at Walsh Jesuit High School in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. At Walsh, he coached the defensive ends, assisted in opponent scouting, and coordinated pre-game and pre-practice warm-ups.

Piraino's introduction to strength and conditioning came in 2000-01 as he completed an internship with the Cleveland Indians. With the Indians, he assisted in the conditioning of the team's major and minor league players.

Piraino is a 2002 graduate of the University of Akron with a bachelor's degree in sport and exercise science. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Michigan State in 2004.

Coach, Football

Scott McLafferty is in his second year at Boston College and is the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Eagles' football program. He joined the staff in June 2012.

McLafferty came to the Heights after having spent six seasons (2007-12) on the strength and conditioning staff at Rice University in Houston, Texas. During his last three years on the Owls' staff, McLafferty served as the associate director of strength and conditioning. As associate director, McLafferty's duties included daily responsibilities working with the Rice football team. He was also responsible for oversight of the Owl basketball team's strength and conditioning training as well as the strength training for the Rice baseball team's pitching staff.

Prior to being named associate director for football in February 2009, McLafferty was coordinator and head strength coach for the Rice men's basketball and men's and women's tennis teams for two years.

McLafferty began his full-time collegiate employment as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech University in August 2004, serving in that position for one academic year before he was elevated to head strength coach for Bulldog men's basketball. He remained in that position from 2005-07.

McLafferty also served as a student assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State University from 2001-04. He graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2007.

He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association and USA Weightlifting.

McLafferty is a native of Stillwater, Okla. He is married to the former Sarah Berger.

KEVIN MURPHY

Head Equipment
Manager,
Football

Kevin Murphy is in his second year as head equipment manager of the Boston College football program. Murphy joined the football equipment operations staff in July 2012 after having served as assistant equipment manager for Olympic sports at Boston College since February 2010.

Murphy's responsibilities include maintaining the program's equipment inventory, working directly with the athletic business office to ensure proper allocation of and adherence to the team's budget. Additionally, he is charged with formulation and implementation of equipment policies and procedures, including the issuing of equipment, inventory controls, laundry services and equipment security, as well as supervision of a staff of student workers.

The 2012 season marks his eighth year affiliated with Boston College and its athletics department. Murphy served four years as student manager for the football team while pursuing his undergraduate degree before becoming a graduate intern within the football equipment operation for the 2009 season. He was hired on a full-time basis at the conclusion of the season and managed the equipment budgets and needs for basketball, soccer, cross country, softball and lacrosse for more than two years.

Murphy is a 2009 Boston College graduate with a degree in communications who earned his master's degree in administrative sciences from BC in May 2011. He is a native of Lowell.

BILL TOOF

Video Coordinator

The man in charge of BC's highly sophisticated computer analysis and video equipment system is Bill Toof, who has been the Eagles' video coordinator since 1990. Toof played a key role in developing the nonlinear editing system that is now an industry standard for pro and Division I football video analysis.

In addition to his duties in the video production room, Toof also served as the head coach of Boston College's highly successful men's and women's ski teams for 30 years.

Toof is a 1969 graduate of Boston College. In addition to being a two-time Eastern Collegiate ski champion and nationally ranked slalom skier, he played both football and baseball while an undergraduate. A talented skier, he became an accomplished coach, taking over the school's fledgling ski team the season after graduation and bringing it to the level where both Eagle men's and women's teams were consistently among the top five in national competition. He was voted Eastern Collegiate Ski Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, '92 and '98.

Toof was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2009.

Bill and his wife, Nancy, have two sons: Shaun, a former BC football letterman at wide receiver, and Bo, who worked all four years in the football video department while matriculating at Boston College, graduating in 2004.

MICHAEL VIGNEAU

Associate Director,
Sports Medicine,
Football

Michael Vigneau is entering his 10th season as athletic trainer for the Boston College football team. He works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice.

After serving two years as a resident athletic trainer in the Boston College sports medicine department, where he worked closely with the Eagles' football and track and field teams, Vigneau was named assistant director for sports medicine for football in September 2006. He was promoted to associate director for football sports medicine in September 2012.

He also served as an orthopedic technician at Brigham and Women's Hospital prior to working as a resident trainer at the Heights.

A 2003 graduate of Colby-Sawyer, Vigneau earned his master's degree in education administration at Boston College in December 2007.

A native of Millbury, Mass., Vigneau is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is a licensed athletic trainer in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Michael and his wife, Shari, have a son, Connor. They reside in Walpole.

NICK CHARLTON

Graduate Asst. –
Offense

Nick Charlton is in his second year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is in his first year as an offensive graduate assistant. Charlton served as a recruiting graduate assistant and an assistant to the special teams coordinator in 2012. He was responsible for managing day-to-day recruiting operations, including official visits, and assisting the special teams coordinator with personnel, opposing looks and analysis.

Charlton joined the Eagle staff in January 2012 after having served as an intern within the football coaching and equipment operation during the 2011 season. He is a 2011 graduate of Boston College who earned a degree in philosophy while serving four years as a student manager for the football team.

A native of Salem, Mass., and former quarterback at Salem High, Charlton earned the program's Student-Athlete and Lead-By-Example awards. He is a 2007 President's Education Award recipient and member of the National Honor Society who is currently pursuing his master's degree in the Woods School of Advancing Studies. He resides in Allston.

RICH GUNNELL

Graduate Asst. –
Offense

Rich Gunnell, Boston College's career record holder for receiving yards, is in his second year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is an offensive graduate assistant. He joined the Eagles staff in June 2012 and spent the previous year as the assistant defensive line coach at Tufts University.

A 2009 graduate of Boston College with a degree in communications, Gunnell was a four-year letterman at wide receiver who served as team co-captain during a senior season in which he earned the team's most valuable player award and All-ACC honorable mention accolades. He registered 181 receptions for a school-record 2,459 yards and 18 touchdowns during his four years (2006-09).

Gunnell enjoyed a brief professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs organization prior to joining the coaching ranks. He is a native of East Windsor, N.J., and is currently pursuing his master's degree in the Woods School of Advancing Studies.

SUPPORT STAFF

MICHAEL LIVINGSTON

Graduate Asst. –
Defense

Michael Livingston joined the Boston College football staff in February 2013 and is in his first year as a defensive graduate assistant. In addition to serving as an assistant to coordinator Don Brown and the defensive staff, Livingston will assist defensive line coach Ben Albert.

Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Livingston spent two seasons working alongside Don Brown as a defensive student assistant at the University of Connecticut. In 2012, the Huskies finished ninth among all FBS teams in total defense.

A December 2012 graduate of the UConn with a concentration in journalism, Livingston first served as an equipment manager for the Huskies during their 2010 Big East championship season. He is a native of Norwalk, Conn., and is currently pursuing his master's degree in the Woods School of Advancing Studies.

CHRIS TRIFONE

Graduate Asst. –
Defense/
Special Teams

Chris Trifone is in his first year as a member of the Boston College football staff. He is entering his third season under the direction of Steve Addazio and is a defensive/special teams graduate assistant coach. He assists in the organization, classroom teaching and on-field coaching of the defensive backs and all phases of special teams play. Trifone also assists in the recruiting areas of New York, Western Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and South Florida.

Prior to his arrival at the Heights in January 2013, he served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Temple University for two seasons, adding special teams coaching duties to his responsibilities in his second season (2012) with the Owls.

Trifone has also worked as an assistant coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

A native of Cheshire, Conn., he earned his bachelor's degree from Endicott College in 2010. He played quarterback, defensive back, defensive end and wide receiver during his four-year career for the Gulls. Trifone is a certified physical education teacher in the states of Massachusetts and Connecticut. He currently resides in Chestnut Hill.

KEVIN TOMASZEK

Graduate Asst. –
Video

Kevin Tomaszek is in his second year as the video graduate assistant for Boston College football. A volunteer video assistant at the Heights for the 2007-09 seasons while studying at nearby Boston University, Tomaszek spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the video graduate assistant for Louisiana Tech football where his primary role was filming and breakdown of practices and games and creating weekly highlight packages.

Tomaszek joined the Boston College staff in August 2012. He is a 2010 graduate of Boston University where he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary history education.

During his time as an undergraduate at BU, he worked for BC as a volunteer video assistant, managing filming, editing and breakdown of practices and games and assisting in creating highlight films. Additionally, he was a BC camp administrator during the summer months.

CATHY ALBANO

Staff Assistant Football Administration

Cathy Albano is in her 21st year as a member of the Boston College football staff. Albano has been an administrative assistant in the Eagles' football office since October 1991.

Prior to her arrival at the Heights, Albano was employed in Newton District Court Clerk's office for five years. She received her associate's degree from Mass Bay Community College.

A native of Waltham, Mass., she and her husband, Frank, a senior facilities supervisor of residential life at Boston College, reside in Newton. They have three children — Marc, Bryan and Caitlyn. All three are Boston College graduates. Marc is a 2000 graduate and is currently an incentive and performance manager at Columbia Management; Marc and his wife, Kelly, welcomed their first child, Joseph, in November 2012. Caitlyn, a 2003 graduate who later received her master's in special education from BC, is currently employed by the Boston Public School system; and Bryan, also an '03 graduate, is a firefighter for the city of Newton. Bryan and his wife, Sara, have a 1-year-old son, Jack.

BRIAH MARRA

Assistant to Head Football Coach

Briah Marra is in her third year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is the assistant to head coach Steve Addazio. She joined the Eagle football staff in July 2011.

She is responsible for organization, preparation and maintenance of the head coach's schedule, including day-to-day facilitation of media obligations and assists in communication efforts with the student body. Briah also serves as an aide to the football operations staff and assists with organization and facilitation of summer youth camps and special events.

Prior to Boston College, Briah was a sales assistant at Shape Magazine in New York City, providing capable assistance and support to the directors in pursuit of increased digital and print advertising sales and managing multiple account portfolios to one of the nation's top women's lifestyle magazines. Additionally, she has previously served internships in news, sales and public relations.

She is a 2009 graduate of Wagner College with a degree in arts administration and minor in marketing. Originally from Seabrook, N.H., she and her husband, Matt Marra, currently reside in Somerville, Mass.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Freshman Duke Johnson broke two long touchdown runs, rushing for 135 yards to lead Miami (Fla.) to a 41-32 victory over Boston College.

Johnson scored from 54 and 56 yards out for the Hurricanes, and Stephen Morris threw for 207 yards and a touchdown in the season opener for both teams. The schools also played each other in the 2011 finale, when BC beat the Hurricanes in Miami for the first time since Doug Flutie's famous desperation pass in 1984.

Chase Rettig led BC on two quick touchdown drives to open the game, scoring on Andre Williams' 4-yard run on the first drive of the game and then a 15-yard pass to Jake Sinkovec. But Miami tied it before the quarter was over, scoring on Eduardo Clements' 1-yard run and then, on the final play of the first, Denzel Perryman's 41-yard interception return.

After Nate Freese kicked a 26-yard field goal to give BC the lead again, Johnson broke loose from 54 yards out and scored to make it 21-17. BC took the lead with two more field goals, but Miami's Jake Wieclaw answered with one and then Johnson broke another long one.

Rettig completed 32 of 51 passes for 441 yards and two touchdowns for BC, which led 14-0 after its first two possessions. But Johnson's second score made it 31-23, and then the Eagles fumbled the ball away on consecutive drives to start the fourth quarter. That set up a field goal and touchdown to give Miami a 41-23 lead.

BC cut the deficit on Rettig's 17-yard touchdown pass to Tahj Kimble, but it wasn't enough. Late in the fourth quarter, the Eagles came up just short of the goal line on a third-down pass to Spiffy Evans. With the clock below 2:30, Rettig quickly lined up and tried to sneak it in but was stopped for no gain.

Miami took an intentional safety with 4 seconds left rather than punt from deep in its own end zone.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Junior quarterback Chase Rettig threw three touchdown passes, and sophomore Spiffy Evans caught one score and ran a punt back 82 yards for another as Boston College beat Maine 34-3. Junior place-kicker Nate Freese booted two field goals, helping the Eagles rebound from a season-opening loss to Miami last week.

The loss was the season opener and the 1,000th game for Maine's program. Brian Harvey had a 19-yard field goal for the Black Bears. Rettig went 16 of 32 for 219 yards and no interceptions. Junior running back Rolandan Finch carried 17 times for 90 yards.

The longtime hockey rivals were locked in a surprisingly tight battle before the Eagles scored 17 points in the final 7:09 of the second quarter. Boston College broke it open with a field goal and two TDs late in the third. Maine's Marcus Wasilewski was 20 of 42 for 134 yards and two interceptions.

It was just the seventh meeting between the schools, with the first five coming before 1930. The Eagles outgained the Black Bears by nearly 100 yards in the opening quarter, but fumbled it away twice and trailed 3-0 after one.

In the second, BC avoided turning the ball over, got its offense on track and marched 62 yards in nine plays with Rettig capping the drive with a 3-yard TD toss to Evans to move ahead 7-3. Rettig completed a pair of passes for 27 yards, moving the ball deep into Maine's territory, before junior Andre Williams carried to the 3 to set up the score.

After the Black Bears gave the ball back to BC at its own 10 following a botched snap on a punt attempt, the Eagles made it 14-3 on Rettig's 9-yard scoring strike to Johnathan Coleman, who made a nice grab along the back line of the end zone. Freese's 39-yard field goal with 61 seconds left in the first half made it 17-3.

The Eagles outgained the Black Bears 229-65 in the first half. Midway into the third, BC safety Jim Noel picked off Wasilewski's pass at the Black Bears' 18. Six plays later, Freese kicked a 20-yard field goal to make it 20-3.

Late in the quarter, Evans backpedaled to handle a long punt, bolted up the middle and raced untouched for the score, making it 27-3.

The Eagles turned it into a rout when Rettig threw a 32-yard TD strike to Alex Amidon on the play after Manuel Asprilla picked off a pass.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Mike Trumpy ran for 106 yards with a late touchdown, and Northwestern beat Boston College 22-13 on Saturday.

Jeff Budzien tied a school record with five field goals and the Wildcats (3-0) made it three wins over three BCS teams to start the season even though they did not reach the end zone until the closing minutes.

They downed a punt at the one to pin Boston College (1-2) against the goal line and took over on the Eagles' 44 with 2:35 left in the game after they went three-and-out.

After going three quarters against Vanderbilt the previous week without a TD, Northwestern finally broke through in this one when Trumpy broke up the middle for a 27-yard scoring run that made it 22-13 with 1:37 remaining.

Before that, Budzien's leg provided all the scoring. Northwestern wasted several big chances, particularly in the early going, and had to settle for field goals instead of touchdowns. But with their kicker on target, the Wildcats led most of the way to come out with the win.

Kain Colter threw for 144 yards and ran for 66, while Trevor

Siemian threw for 123 yards. Venric Mark ran for 77 yards but spent the fourth quarter on the sideline limping with an undisclosed lower body injury.

Chase Rettig came up big for Boston College, completing 24 of 44 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown, but the Eagles fell short.

Budzien's 41-yarder at the end of the second quarter gave the Wildcats a 12-10 lead, but that came right after another blown chance. A leaping Kyle Prater deflected a wobbly pass from Siemian in the end zone that probably should have been caught anyway for a 23-yard TD.

Northwestern caught a break after Colter lost a fumble near midfield on its first possession of the third quarter.

Boston College took over at the Wildcats 45 and drove to the 5 before Rolandan Finch got stripped at the line by Brian Armfelt, with Chi Chi Ariguzo recovering the ball for Northwestern.

That led to a 19-yarder by Budzien to make it 15-10 late in the third.

Nate Freese pulled Boston College within two with a 34-yard field goal in the opening seconds of the fourth.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Boston College showed off its offensive firepower but it wasn't enough to match No. 17 Clemson. Tajh Boyd threw for 367 yards and three touchdowns and ran in another himself as the Tigers beat the Eagles 45-31.

Chase Rettig completed 25 of 43 passes for 341 yards and three touchdowns. Alex Amidon caught eight passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns for Boston College (1-3, 0-2 ACC).

The Eagles looked sharp early, opening a 21-17 lead before giving up three unanswered touchdowns.

It seemed like whenever BC looked like it might have a chance to make a charge at Clemson, Boyd made a big play. Boyd completed 28 of 38 passes and ran 11 times for 42 yards for Clemson (4-1, 1-1 ACC). DeAndre Hopkins caught 11 passes for 197 yards for the Tigers. Andre Ellington ran 25 times for 132 yards and a touchdown for Clemson.

Amidon's yardage was the third most in school history — behind two games quarterbacked by Doug Flutie.

BC came back from a 17-7 deficit to lead 21-17 on Rettig's 31-yard pass to Amidon with 4:12 left in the first half. But Boyd hit Brandon Ford for a 4-yard TD just before the end of the half, then capped Clemson's first drive of the second half with Roderick McDowell's 16-yard touchdown run.

After Rashard Hall's interception set the Tigers up at the BC 33, Boyd hit Jaron Brown for 30 yards and Ellington ran it in from the 1 to make it 38-21.

Clemson added its last TD when Boyd hit Hopkins from 35 yards out to make it 45-28 with 1 minute gone in the fourth quarter. The Tigers ended the game by taking a knee on the BC 1.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Trent Steelman rushed for 141 yards and scored three times, including a decisive 29-yard touchdown run with 45 seconds left, and Army beat Boston College 34-31 on Saturday to snap an eight-game losing streak.

Fullback Larry Dixon had 128 yards rushing on just 13 carries and added another touchdown, and Daniel Grochowski kicked two field goals for Army (1-4), which finished with 516 yards rushing and held the ball for more than 37 minutes.

After Grochowski's 20-yard field goal gave Army a 27-24 lead with 9:04 left, BC (1-4) awoke after a listless third quarter.

38. It took Army just 18 seconds to score.

The loss spoiled a stellar day for BC's Andre Williams, who finished with a career-high 191 yards rushing on 17 carries and scored twice.

Chase Rettig was 13 of 24 for 197 yards passing and was sacked five times, never finding any sort of rhythm.

When a punt by Army's Chris Boldt and a penalty against BC pinned the Eagles at their own 1, the Black Knights were poised to pounce. Instead, Williams bolted through a huge hole off right tackle and sped 99 yards for a touchdown to tie it at 14-all. It was the longest run in BC history.

A bad pitch by Steelman on a third-and-1 play near midfield led to Army's 14th lost fumble of the season, and the Eagles capitalized on Nate Freese's 25-yard field goal to take a 17-14 lead midway through the second.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — EJ Manuel threw for a career-high 439 yards and four touchdowns and kicker Dustin Hopkins became the Atlantic Coast Conference's career scoring leader Saturday as 12th-ranked Florida State rebounded from its first loss of the season with a 51-7 victory over Boston College.

Manuel completed 27 of 34 passes before leaving early in the fourth quarter with a 48-7 lead.

Florida State (6-1, 3-1 ACC) rolled to a 28-0 lead midway through the second quarter before Boston College (1-5, 0-3) scored its touchdown on Chase Rettig's 18-yard pass to Bobby Swigert.

Rettig, who came into the game averaging 306.2 yards passing, managed 122 against the ACC's top defense.

Andre Williams ran for 104 yards on 20 carries for the Eagles

Boston College drove to the Florida State 1-yard line on the opening drive of the game, but couldn't score, stopped twice only inches from the goal line.

It didn't take the Seminoles long to get to the other end. Manuel threw six straight passes on the opening 99-yard drive without once going to the run. He passed for 295 yards and three touchdowns in the first half alone.

Kenny Shaw raced 77 yards with a Manuel pass to cap Florida State's drive. Shaw caught the pass near midfield and outran two BC defenders down the left sideline for the touchdown. He had two catches for 125 yards and teammate Rodney Smith had nine receptions for 108 yards. Lonnie Pryor added a pair of short touchdown runs for the Seminoles, who rolled up 649 yards to BC's 225.

ATLANTA (AP) — Tevin Washington ran for two touchdowns and backup quarterback Vad Lee also accounted for two scores, leading Georgia Tech to a 37-17 victory over Boston College.

Zach Laskey rushed for 101 yards for the Yellow Jackets before going out with a shoulder injury.

Georgia Tech built a 31-3 lead by early in the third quarter. Chase Rettig threw two touchdown passes to make the score a bit more respectable.

The Yellow Jackets finished with 563 yards and held the ball for more than 43 minutes.

Georgia Tech set the tone on its first possession, driving 89 yards in 10 plays before Connor Wujciak got a hand on a field goal attempt. That only delayed the inevitable.

The Yellow Jackets got it back and quickly drove 90 yards in 13 plays, capped by Washington's 12-yard touchdown run.

After Boston College went three-and-out, Georgia Tech took it 63 yards in 11 plays. Again, it was Washington capping the drive, powering over for a 1-yard score to make it 14-0.

The Eagles finally put together some offense after Washington's second TD, setting up Nate Freese's 25-yard field goal.

But Georgia Tech took the ensuing kickoff and got right back to work, sparked by Jamal Golden's 36-yard return. Changing up at quarterback, the Yellow Jackets sent in Lee to spell Washington. The redshirt freshman took advantage of his opportunity, breaking off a 24-yard touchdown run that included a couple of nifty moves right at the goal line.

Boston College went 19 yards the wrong way on its next possession. A shotgun snap sailed far over Rettig's head, forcing the quarterback to fall on it, and Andre Williams lost 2 more yards on a fumble that was recovered by the Eagles.

After punting it away again, they quickly gave up Lee's 45-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Autry.

Rettig was 19 of 31 for 264 yards, including touchdown passes of 40 yards to Alex Amidon and 12 yards to Chris Pantale. The Eagles closed the margin to 31-17, but their last hope ended on a roughing-the-punter penalty.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Chase Rettig completed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Johnathan Coleman with 52 seconds left to give Boston College a 20-17 victory over Maryland.

The victory snapped a five-game losing streak for the Eagles (2-6, 1-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) and helped them avoid their worst start since 1989.

Caleb Rowe completed a 66-yard touchdown pass to Stefan Diggs midway through the fourth quarter to give Maryland its first lead of the game. But on the first play after BC's go-ahead touchdown, Rowe was intercepted by Spenser Rositano. A freshman making the start because of injuries to Maryland's top three quarterbacks, Rowe completed 23 of 42 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. But he was also picked off three times.

Wearing stars-and-stripes uniforms for Military Appreciation Day, Boston College opened a 13-0 lead early in the third quarter thanks to a pair of interceptions and then came back after giving up the lead. Rettig was 21 for 39 for 287 yards and two touchdowns, completing his last six passes on the game-winning drive. Alex Amidon caught nine passes for 137 yards.

Diggs had 11 catches for 152 yards for Maryland, and Wes Brown ran 23 times for 73 yards. The Eagles scored on a two-play, 39-yard touchdown drive on their first possession and took over on the Maryland 19 on their second thanks to Spiffy Evans' 72-yard punt return. But Andre Williams fumbled the ball into the end zone, where it was recovered by Darius Kilgo for a touchdown.

BC made it 10-0 on Nate Freese's 36-yard field goal early in the second quarter and made it 13-0 on a 28-yarder early in the third. They had a chance to ice it when Rowe sailed a third-and-7 pass over the middle into double-coverage that linebacker Nick Clancy had in his hands but dropped.

On fourth down, Rowe hit Kevin Dorsey for 26 yards; on fourth-and-goal from the 1 yard-line, Rowe connected with Nigel King for the touchdown that made it 13-7.

Maryland took over at its own 27 yard-line and needed just three plays to score to go up 17-13. Rowe hit Diggs on a slant pattern, and the receiver headed to the left sideline before out-sprinting the coverage to the end zone.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) — Michael Campanaro caught three first-half touchdown passes from Tanner Price and Wake Forest took a step closer to becoming bowl eligible with a 28-14 win over Boston College on Saturday.

Campanaro tied an Atlantic Coast Conference record with 16 receptions for 123 yards and became only the eighth player in school history to catch three TD passes in a game.

Price was outstanding, completing 39 of 57 passes for 293 yards as the Demon Deacons (5-4, 3-4) bounced back from a 29-point thrashing last week to No. 9 Clemson.

Wake Forest came in with the lowest-scoring offense in the ACC, but looked sharp early with Price hooking up on touchdown strikes of 5, 27 and 16 yards to Campanaro to build a 21-7 half-time lead.

Chase Rettig threw for 357 yards for Boston College (2-7, 1-5), but turned the ball over four times, three of those on interceptions.

The previous nine meetings between these teams were decided by 10 points or less, but it appeared early on Wake Forest might run away with this one after jumping out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

But Rettig capped a 12-play, 95-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter with a 16-yard scoring strike to Alex Amidon to cut the Deacons' lead in half. Amidon finished with 10 catches for 130 yards.

However, Wake Forest turned the tide late in the second quarter when defensive end Zach Thompson stripped Rettig of the ball in the backfield and recovered at the Eagles 15. Five plays later Price hooked up with a wide-open Campanaro on a wheel route for their third touchdown with 54 seconds left in the half.

Boston College would make it close.

After a 52-yard completion from Rettig to Johnathan Coleman, the Eagles went to their bag of tricks. Rettig threw a lateral to receiver Bobby Swigert, who promptly threw to a wide-open Chris Pantale in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 21-14.

That was as close as they'd get.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Everett Golson ran for a touchdown and threw for two more on Saturday night to help No. 4 Notre Dame beat Boston College 21-6 and keep its national championship hopes intact.

Taking the field one hour after top-ranked Alabama lost to No. 15 Texas A&M, the Fighting Irish (10-0) remained unbeaten and in the hunt for a spot in the BCS title game. And a week after needing triple overtime — and a lot of luck — to get past unheralded Pittsburgh, Notre Dame eased past a longtime rival that had twice before spoiled its hopes of a No. 1 finish.

Golson completed 16 of 24 passes for 200 yards, connecting with Troy Niklas for a 7-yard touchdown at the end of the first half and with John Goodman from 18 yards out early in the second. Manti Te'o grabbed his sixth interception of the season — a school record for a linebacker — to end BC's last real chance at a comeback with just under 6 minutes left.

Chase Rettig completed 27 of 34 passes for 247 yards for BC (2-8), which is off to its worst start since 1989. Alex Amidon caught six passes for 84 yards to break the school's single-season record for receiving yards.

Theo Riddick ran 18 times for 104 yards and caught six passes for 67 more for the Irish, who are 10-0 for the first time since 1993.

RUSHING: ND - Riddick 18-104, Golson 11-29 1 TD, Wood 6-33, Atkinson 4-9; BC - Finch 7-40, Amidon 1-14, Swigert 1-9, Dudeck 4-9, Coleman 1-4, Rettig 8-14.

That was the year BC's David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal as time expired to beat No. 1 Notre Dame and end its perfect season in the final game. In 2002, the Irish were unbeaten and No. 4 in the country when unranked Boston College won 14-7 in South Bend to again spoil Notre Dame's chances at a national championship.

Notre Dame entered the day trailing Alabama, Oregon and Kansas State in the AP Top 25. The Irish would probably need either Oregon or Kansas State to fall from the unbeaten in order to squeeze into the top two in the BCS rankings.

Notre Dame scored on its first possession, going 95 yards to make it 7-0 on Golson's 2-yard run. The Irish fumbled on their second try but then mounted another long drive, going 87 yards on 16 plays and taking a 14-3 lead on Golson's pass to Niklas with 26 seconds left in the half. Golson rolled right and found Goodman in the left corner of the end zone on the first drive of the third quarter to make it 21-3.

Boston College made one last charge with a 45-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter that cut the deficit to 21-6.

But BC couldn't get past the Notre Dame 35 before turning the ball over on downs. The Eagles held on defense, then brought the ball to midfield before Rettig's pass was deflected by receiver Donte Elliott and right to Te'o.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) — Logan Thomas threw for two touchdowns — the second a 7-yarder to Randall Dunn in overtime — and ran for another score to help Virginia Tech keep its bowl hopes alive with a 30-23 comeback win over Boston College on Saturday.

Thomas completed 16-of-33 passes for 247 yards and added a 1-yard touchdown run. Cody Journell kicked three field goals for Virginia Tech.

Rolandan Finch rushed 26 times for 133 yards and Nate Freese booted three field goals for BC. Chase Rettig was 13-of-30 for 129 yards and one touchdown for the Eagles.

Boston College won the toss before overtime and elected to play defense first. Virginia Tech scored on its initial possession.

The Hokies then held BC, tackling David Dudeck five yards short after he collected a swing pass from Rettig on a fourth-and-11 play.

With Virginia Tech holding a 20-16 edge, BC grabbed the lead when Dudeck, a freshman, took a handoff, hesitated at the line and burst through an open hole for his first career a TD run — a 12-yarder with 4:11 to play.

The Hokies then marched 62 yards in 10 plays, with Journell's third field goal of the game — a 41-yarder — tying it at 23-all with 65 seconds left.

Virginia Tech, which trailed by 10 at the half, took a 17-13 lead on Thomas' 37-yard TD pass to Marcus Davis late in the third quarter. The play came on a third-and-17 after BC elected to accept a holding call and move the Hokies out of field goal range. The Eagles had stopped Thomas on a scramble up the middle on the prior play near the 22.

On the ensuing drive, Freese's third field goal of the game — a 42-yarder — cut it to 17-16, but Journell's 42-yard field goal with 6:15 to play restored the Hokies' four-point lead.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Mike Glennon threw three touchdown passes and David Amerson returned an interception for a score Saturday as North Carolina State defeated Boston College 27-10 in the teams' regular-season finale.

NC State (7-5, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) is headed for a bowl game for the third season in a row — its destination is dependent on other ACC results.

Glennon connected twice for touchdowns with Tobais Palmer in a span of 51 seconds late in the third quarter to propel the Wolfpack. Glennon finished 24 of 37 for 230 yards.

Amerson snagged a pass that deflected off the hands of Boston College receiver Colin Larmond Jr., recording his 18th career pick and darting back for a 55-yard score 27 seconds before halftime. NC State improved to 12-2 when Amerson records an interception, including 5-0 this season.

The Wolfpack overcame a shaky offensive performance in the first half — one fumble, six punts — to clinch a third consecutive winning season.

Boston College's Rolandan Finch (19 carries, 144 yards) scored from 4 yards out with 5:18 left in the third quarter to cut the lead to 14-10, but that was as close as the Eagles (2-10, 1-7) would get.

Glennon found Palmer for an 8-yard score on the next drive. Then, after Justin Burris recorded the Wolfpack's third interception of Chase Rettig, Glennon hit Palmer for a 25-yard score and a 27-10 lead.

Glennon's season total of 3,648 yards is second on the school's all-time list, behind Philip Rivers. Glennon is the first player in NC State history to record multiple 30-touchdown seasons. He had 31 last season and 30 this year.

JOHN WETZEL

OT | 6-8 | 302

Pittsburgh, Pa. (Brashear)

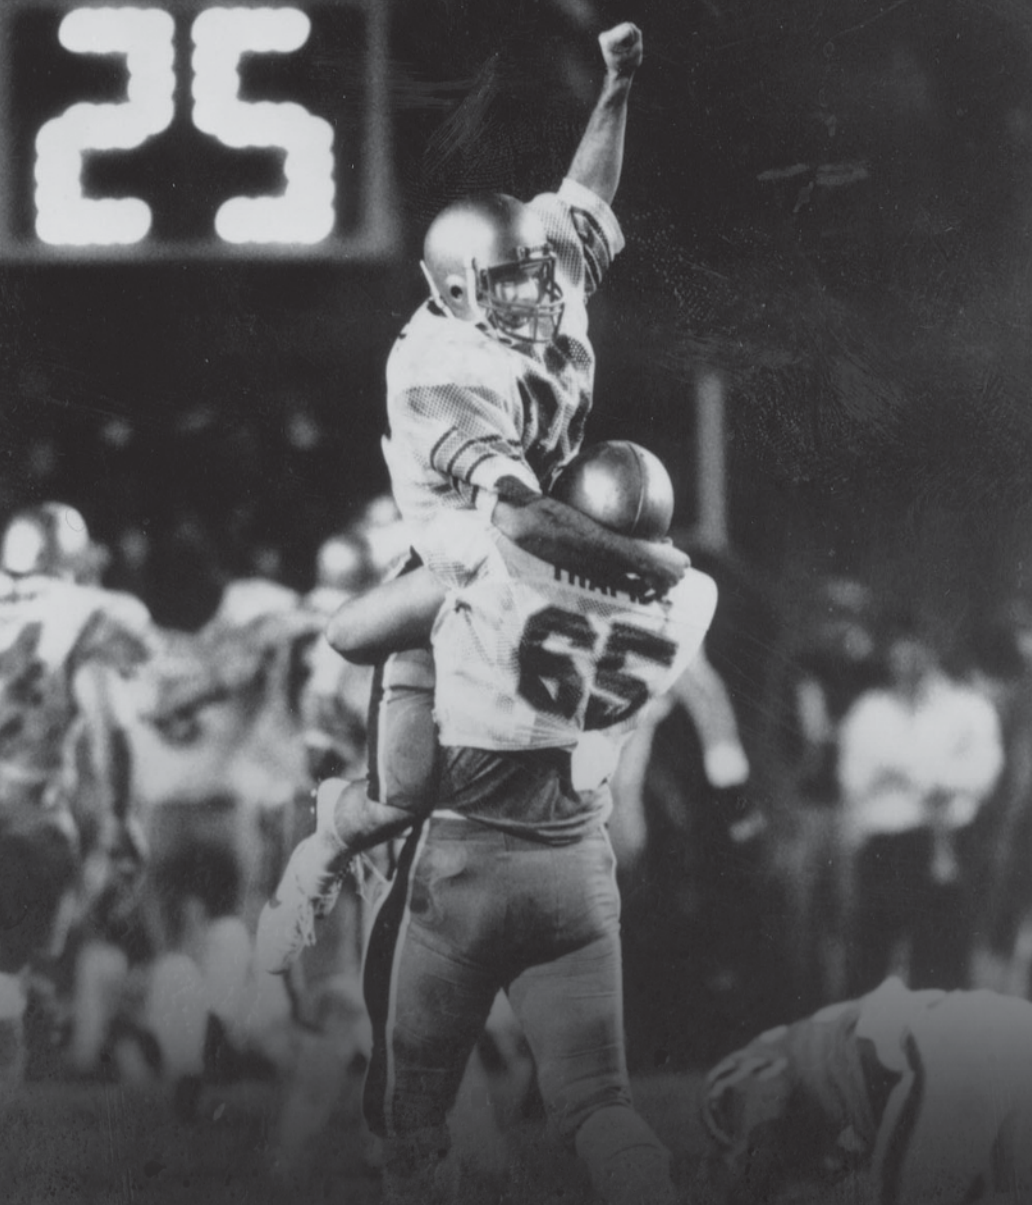

JOHN WILLIAM WETZEL: born July 18, 1991... John is the son of Janet and John Wetzel; has a twin brother, Dave, and two sisters.

2012 (SENIOR): Started all 12 games at right tackle and played 886 snaps... pass blocked for an offense that averaged 259.3 passing yards per game—the most since the 2007 team averaged 329.7 yards per game through the air... helped in allowing Chase Rettig to throw for 300 or more yards in a game three times... paved the way for the Eagles to rack up 542 yards of total offense (441 passing, 101 rushing) with no sacks allowed against Miami (Sept. 1)... run blocked for Andre Williams' 191-yard, two-touchdown rushing performance against Army (Oct. 6).

2011 (JUNIOR): Started all 12 games at left tackle and played 715 snaps... the Eagles had six games with more than 100 yards rushing; including a 372-yard performance at Maryland (Oct. 29)... blocked for Rolandan Finch against the Terrapins (Oct. 29); Finch's 243 rushing yards were the third greatest single-game total in program history and most in the ACC since 2009... BC did not give up a sack and scored a season-high four rushing touchdowns vs. Maryland... helped Montel Harris eclipse BC's rushing record with a 108-yard performance against Wake Forest (Oct. 1); Harris' career rushing total was 3,734 yards... the Eagles threw for more than 200 yards in two games; 351 passing yards against Northwestern (Sept. 3) and 247 passing yards vs. Duke (Sept. 17).

2010 (SOPHOMORE): Made eight appearances on the year... spent much of his first two seasons as the backup to Anthony Castonzo, who was a first-round NFL draft selection; he was, therefore, able to learn from one of the best in the country and was poised and ready to take the reins... a big, strong, physical player who possesses the necessary size and ability to step right into that role.

2009 (FRESHMAN): Appeared in six games as a second-stringer... BC ranked 39th in the country in sacks allowed (1.54)... blocked for RB Montel Harris who had the fourth-most carries in the country (308) and the 10th-most rushing yards (1,457)... the line helped Harris record eight 100-yard games.

BC FOOTBALL TIMELINE

A HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

— Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68

The 2012 season will be the 115th year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 100-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

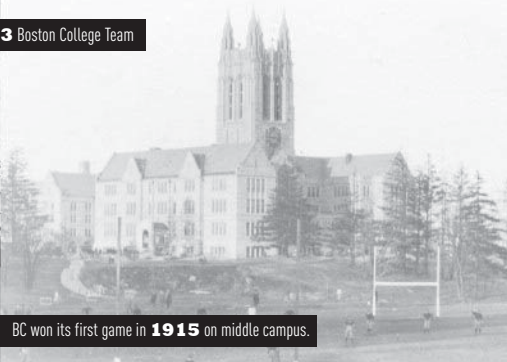

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on middle campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

The 1893 Boston College Team

BC won its first game in 1915 on middle campus.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's upper campus.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first intersectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season at 6-0-2. Team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 — BC names Gilmour Dobie, another future

College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule is upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games are shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lose only six games in his three-year tenure.

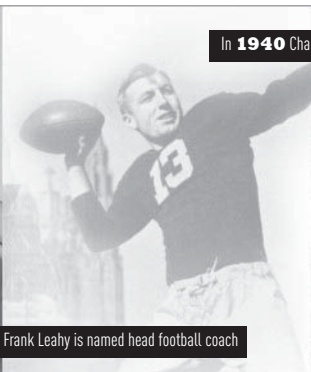

1939 — On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy is named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin'" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

1941 — On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Coconut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Coconut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College loses to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also includes lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 — On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

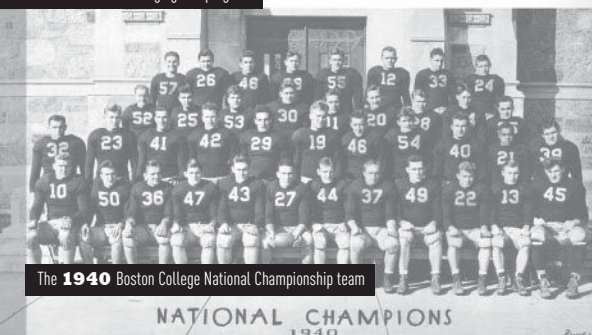

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College is told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considers dropping the sport.

1957 — On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announces the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics Director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney lead the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

The 1941 Boston College game program

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium is expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface is installed and lights are added for night play.

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, are the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette is the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record does not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

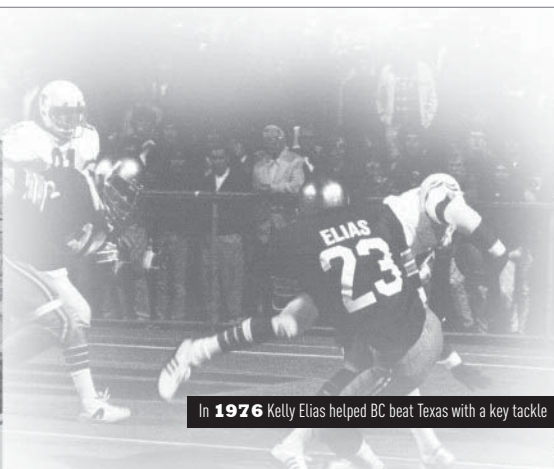

1975 — The Eagles open the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 — The Eagles suffer their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo, Japan, on Dec. 10.

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell is hired as head coach. He opens the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie sees his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 — The Eagles open the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles are invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

In 1976 Kelly Elias helped BC beat Texas with a key tackle

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that is remembered as the game “that the lights went out.” Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles’ stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College Football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard “Hail Mary” touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game’s final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on

New Year’s Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football’s top lineman that season.

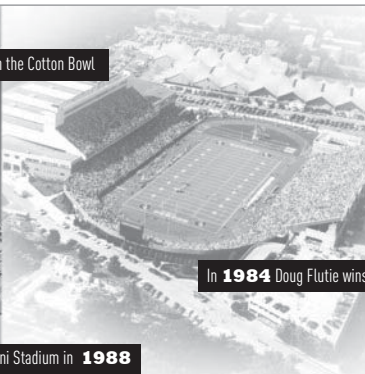

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa’s Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities is dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin’s Lansdowne Road Stadium.

1992 — BC scores three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale where they convincingly beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television this year.

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

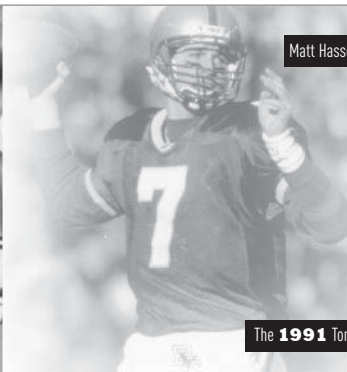

2000 — Boston College makes its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green becomes the third-straight Eagles back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earns first-team All-America honors and is later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 — The Eagles post an 8-4 record and earn back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. William Green rushes for 1,559 yards and earns first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) are selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

2003 — On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, SJ and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo hold a press conference to announce that Boston College would accept an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The 2003 Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG East Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson, who engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first Atlantic Coast Conference game — a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "Game Day" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 — Another successful year for BC Football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including a pair of double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23) on back-to-back September Saturdays. The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow 25-24 victory.

In 2001 William Green rushed for 1,559 yards

The Eagles played their first ACC game in 2005

Mathias Kiwanuka finished his BC career in 2005 with 37.5 sacks all-time, a record he still holds.

2007 — With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski — a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant — at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year — the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 — the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounded back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Championships of 1940.

2008 — As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame — the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 — Long-time BC defensive assistant Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 — The defensively-powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive post-season bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 — For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 on the season and missed out on post-season play, but BC showed plenty of promise for the future by winning three ACC games — Maryland, North Carolina and Miami — down the home stretch. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-America LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 — The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, Coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on December 4.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

COTTON BOWL

Jan. 1, 1940
Dallas, Texas
Clemson 6
Boston College 3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

His team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

SUGAR BOWL

Jan. 1, 1941
New Orleans, La.
Boston College 19
Tennessee 13

In Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied at 13.

Don Currihan blocked a Tennessee field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1943

Miami, Fla.

Alabama 37

Boston College 21

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back for a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

TANGERINE BOWL

Dec. 18, 1982

Orlando, Fla.

Auburn 33

Boston College 26

Eagle quarterback Doug Flutie put on a dazzling performance, completing 22-of-38 passes for 299 yards and two touchdowns (he also scored on a five-yard run and accounted for a pair of two-point-conversions), but the Eagles' furious second-half rally fell just short of victory. The Eagles scored on the first drive of the game and then played tremendous defense, stopping the nationally ranked Auburn Tigers twice on drives inside their own 5-yard line without surrendering a touchdown. The Tigers used their blinding outside speed to score three second-quarter touchdowns and increased their lead to 33-10 by the end of the third.

LIBERTY BOWL

Dec. 29, 1983
Memphis, Tenn.
Notre Dame 19
Boston College 18

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16-of-37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a 3-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giauquinto fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

COTTON BOWL

Jan. 1, 1985
Dallas, Texas
Boston College 45
Houston 28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead. Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest. Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 half-time lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a five-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, Fla.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with just 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

Jan. 1, 1993
Tampa, Fla.
Tennessee 38
Boston College 23

The first bowl appearance in six years fell short of a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the Vols a lead that could not be matched. BC had outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's seven-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's closing effort.

Boston College 31
Virginia 13

Glenn Foley put on a masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage, 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing minutes of play. In his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses duelled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left. The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

Colorado began the game with a 65-yard drive that resulted in the first touchdown. The Buffs would score twice before the first quarter ended. The Eagles showed they would not give up when George White intercepted a pass from CU quarterback Mike Moschetti and returned it 78 yards for the Eagles' first touchdown of the game. With 7:22 left in the first half, the Eagles trailed by a score of 35-7. The half came to a close with Colorado ahead 45-7. The third quarter offered much the same, with Tim Hasselbeck and Brian St. Pierre combining to complete only nine of 28 passes. By the end of the day, Colorado took a convincing 62-28 win back to Boulder.

BC put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl. Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior line-backer Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Boston College accumulated 180 yards on the ground, including a final 100-yard rushing game (109 yards) for Washington.

Boston College snapped its 22-game losing streak to ranked teams with a thrilling 20-16 victory over No. 16 Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl. Consensus All-America tailback William Green rushed for 149 yards, including a seven-yard, game-winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the game, to lead the Eagles to consecutive wins in a postseason bowl game.

Although the Eagles were outgained, 410 yards to 306 yards, the team did benefit from two UGA interceptions, two UGA fumbles and two first downs resulting from UGA penalties. Brian St. Pierre finished with 109 yards and one touchdown on nine completions. Green led all rushers with 149 yards and one touchdown, rushing for his 10th 100-yard game of the season. Fred Gibson was the game's leading receiver with 109 yards on six receptions.

Detroit, Mich.
Toledo 25

BC won a bowl game for an unprecedented third year in a row as the Eagles thumped Toledo, 51-25, in the Motor City Bowl. Senior quarterback Brian St. Pierre completed 25-of-35 passes for a career-high 342 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles capped one of the most successful seasons in their football history. The game was never close as the Eagles scored touchdowns on their first six possessions. BC took the opening kickoff on its own 24 and marched 76 yards in 10 plays behind the rushing of Derrick Knight, who finished the day with 19 carries for 65 yards and a touchdown.

After Toledo pulled to within 14-3, the Eagles mounted another impressive drive, culminating in a St. Pierre touchdown pass to a talented sophomore wide receiver, a 40-yarder to Joel Hazard that made the score 21-3. The Rockets came no closer the rest of the day.

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left. A 40-yard Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Stancil interception led to a Peterson-to-Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone.

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

Dec. 30, 2004
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37
North Carolina 24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort. UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ryan Öhliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

Ryan Glasper intercepted a Jared Zabransky pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to lift BC past Boise State 27-21 in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl.

Playing before a hostile crowd and on the blue turf of home-standing Boise State, the Eagles stunned the Broncos by scoring the first 27 points of the game as quarterback Matt Ryan connected on three touchdown passes, including two to Tony Gonzalez in the first half. Ryan completed 19-of-36 passes for 256 yards, 144 of them going to senior Will Blackmon.

Ryan got the Eagles on the board 3:29 into the first half when he found Gonzalez for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Following a Ryan Ohliger 30-yard field goal, BC line-backer Jolonn Dunbar caused a fumble that was picked up by Ray Henderson and taken to the Broncos 13 yard-line. Ryan then hooked up with Gonzalez on a 13-yard strike to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead.

Boston College 25
Navy 24

Interim Head Coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for N.C. State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations. Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's MVP after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown.

With Navy trying to kill the clock with less than two minutes remaining, Dunbar recovered a Reggie Campbell fumble at the 36. Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Ryan Purvis to get the Eagles within field goal range. Kicker Steve Aponavicius connected from 37 yards as time expired and the Eagles won yet another bowl game.

CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

Dec. 28, 2007
Orlando, Fla.
Boston College 24
Michigan State 21

Quarterback Matt Ryan ended a brilliant career in style by leading the Eagles to an 11th victory for only the second time in school history as BC defeated Michigan State, 24-21, in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando.

Ryan completed 22-of-47 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles kept the nation's longest bowl game winning streak alive with their eighth straight bowl win. The win also propelled the team to a No. 10 finish in the final AP college football poll of the season, BC's first top 10 finish since the 1984 season. Michigan State had an opportunity to pull the upset, taking over with 2:37 left in the game. But on first down, BC's Paul Anderson intercepted a Hoyer pass and returned it to the MSU 29, allowing the Eagles to run out the clock.

MUSIC CITY BOWL

Dec. 31, 2008
Nashville, Tenn.
Vanderbilt 16
Boston College 14

Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years when Bryant Hahnfeldt kicked a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left to beat Boston College 16-14 in the Music City Bowl.

Vanderbilt hadn't even played in a bowl since 1982 and the win gave the Commodores (7-6) their first winning season since then.

Boston College (9-5) snapped the nation's longest bowl winning streak after eight straight games in its 10th consecutive bowl appearance. The Eagles also missed a chance at finishing with at least 10 wins for a third straight season.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

Dec. 26, 2009
San Francisco, Calif.
USC 24
Boston College 13

Matt Barkley threw touchdown passes to Stanley Havili on Southern California's first two possessions and added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter to help the Trojans beat Boston College 24-13 in the Emerald Bowl.

Damian Williams caught 12 passes for 189 yards, setting up Havili's second score and Barkley's one-yard sneak that gave USC a 24-13 lead with 11:53 remaining.

The Eagles stayed close with the Trojans for most of the game before Dave Shinskie threw an interception to Shareece Wright early in the fourth quarter. On the next play, Barkley connected on a 48-yard pass to Williams. Barkley scored on the next play.

Jan. 9, 2011
San Francisco, Calif.
Nevada 20
Boston College 13

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolf Pack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14 of 34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pre-game warmups.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

DOUG FLUTIE AND MIKE RUTH

22 QB | 1981-84 | Natuck, Mass.

Doug Flutie

68 NG | 1982-85 | Norristown, Pa.

Mike Ruth

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the No. 22 or 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie and nose tackle Mike Ruth, respectively.

Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Conn., to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on Oct. 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

Eight other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Lou Montgomery, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

Holovak, O'Rourke, Thurman and Urban were honored in ceremonies on Sept. 12, 1998, as the Eagles beat Rutgers.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first Eastern Championship. He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season. Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957-90, and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletics facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at 1999's Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3. In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl. He lettered for the Eagles from 1938-40 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

Doug Flutie is the quintessential football performer. Between the 1981 and 1984 college football seasons, he produced a major college career record of 11,054 yards of total offense (10,579 of them from passing, another national career record).

He first appeared on the collegiate scene in the fall of 1981 starting in the fourth game of his freshman year in an already-lost game at Penn State. He raked Joe Paterno's defense for 135 passing yards and a touchdown and won the starting job with that performance.

He went on to post a 30-11-1 overall record as a starter while also leading BC to three postseason bowls, the school's first postseason play in 40 years. He was the game MVP of the Tangerine Bowl in his sophomore year against Auburn and the Liberty Bowl in his junior year vs. Notre Dame.

Flutie's last-chance, game-winning drives were the stuff of Hollywood screenwriters. As long as there was time on the clock, Flutie always believed that it was possible to win.

In those rare instances when it didn't happen, it was only because he had run out of time — not out of opportunity.

The best thing about watching Flutie in a game was wondering what astounding feat he would perform that day. Those feats weren't always game-winning plays, but often a series of individual plays within a game that, when totaled, made victory possible.

No obstacle on the field seemed too great to overcome.

While gifted with great mobility and an uncanny talent to "photograph" an opposing defense and then pick it apart at his whim, perhaps his greatest talent was an innate sense of how to win — an asset that never was coached into him.

When he wasn't rolling up prodigious amounts of passing yards, Flutie tantalized his foes with his scrambling and finished his career with more than 700 rushing yards.

Then, there was the size factor — "Little Doug" playing in a land of giants. Of course, "Little Doug" was just as tall as the average American male, about 5-10. Perception soon became reality and a "little" man, real or imagined, wasn't supposed to accomplish what he did on a football field.

As a sophomore, he engineered a memorable tie against defending national champion Clemson. After the nationally televised game, CBS commentator Pat Haden, himself a smallish quarterback who succeeded at USC, sought him out and told him, "Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are too small to play this game."

Yet, he also was a man of the people. He went to class with other students; he ate on the same meal plan they used; he played pick-up basketball games in the gym with them; and he never sought an exalted place in either his campus or personal life.

He thrived in his family setting away from the adulation, glitz and glitter of his fame. One of the happiest moments of a momentous senior year was playing with his younger brother Darren, then a freshman wide receiver.

Oddly enough, Flutie eschewed scholarship offers from Holy Cross and Syracuse, who wanted to make him a defensive back despite his fine performances at quarterback for Natick High School, in Boston's Metro-west suburbs.

But Boston College got him with an assurance by new head coach Jack Bicknell that he would be given a full shot.

In 1983, he was key in the Eagles' upset victory over Alabama and another last-second win against Temple. His team lost to Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl, but he was named game MVP.

All of that simply set the table for his amazing senior season in 1984. He threw six touchdown passes in a 52-20 romp over North Carolina; got four in an opening-game victory over Western Carolina; and three each against Rutgers, Army and Holy Cross; and of course, his fabled, last-play touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan to beat Miami stood above all else.

In 1984, Doug Flutie became the first player in Boston College history to win college football's grandest individual award — the Heisman Trophy.

It capped an unbelievable 9-2 season that included the astounding victory over Miami, a victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl and a No. 5 national ranking.

He was the single-most exciting and resourceful player in college football that season. In addition to being named the starting quarterback on every major 1984 all-America team and winning the Heisman, he also won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's outstanding college football player; the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award; and numerous player of the year awards.

As icing on the cake, Flutie headlined the 2007 College Football Hall of Fame class. Flutie was selected in his first year of eligibility and was inducted at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Ind., during ceremonies in the summer of 2008.

MIKE RUTH

Though his team had a losing record, Ruth was honored in 1985, the only time a player from a non-winning team has been recognized.

At 6-1 and 265 pounds, he not only was the team's strongest player — he had a record 560-pound bench press as a junior — but he also was the quickest lineman.

He mauled the offensive linemen who tried to block him, often tossing them aside like rag dolls; or he fooled them with his cat-like quickness that helped him elude double teams by centers and guards until it was almost monotonous to watch.

The combination of his strength and quickness helped him accumulate a couple dozen sacks and nearly 300 tackles during his career.

Injuries once more dogged him as a senior but not enough that he didn't excel on a team that won only four of 12 games.

Ruth had built a tremendous reputation during his junior season and really secured the Outland Trophy in the 1985 season's first game, the Kickoff Classic against Brigham Young University at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

He relentlessly harassed BYU's quarterbacks the entire game, convincing the trophy's voters that he still was the country's best interior lineman. His play for the rest of the season did nothing to diminish that impression.

Ruth showed as a freshman during the 1982 season that he would be special when playing a backup role, he accumulated 36 tackles and three quarterback sacks.

BC CAREER

Mike Ruth is the only Boston College player to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's best interior offensive or defensive lineman.

Though dogged by a season-long ankle injury as a sophomore in 1983, he more than doubled his tackles to 80 and had 7.5 sacks.

In 1984, as the key to the Eagles' defensive strength, Ruth had 102 tackles, 76 of them solo. He had 6.5 sacks, but also was credited with 20 quarterback pressures and seven other minus-yard plays. In the 1984 game against Holy Cross, he pressured the Crusader quarterback into throwing five interceptions.

Away from the field, he was just as unique.

For most of his time at BC, he seriously considered a vocation to the priesthood. He was a very value-oriented person who practiced what he preached. Often, the night before a game, the team would watch a movie he found objectionable and he simply sat outside the meeting room where it was being shown, and studied.

When his teammates emerged, he rejoined them for the team's late-night snack and everything was very comfortable for all concerned.

His mother was a victim of severe arthritis, so bad that at times she could not walk down the aisle in his family's parish church outside Philadelphia. No matter. Mike simply picked her up in his massive arms and carried her to her pew; and when it came time for her to receive Holy Communion, he carried her to the altar and back again.

He was team captain in 1985, his Outland Trophy year, but his leadership, even in a losing season, remained true to his personality. He told everyone before that season that he was not a holler guy, that his leadership would be by example. He never wavered and played as intensely as he had the previous seasons.

Ruth came to BC from Norristown, Pa., where he graduated from Methacton High School. He was a third-team all-state pick and was the team captain.

After his Boston College career, Ruth was a second-round draft pick (42nd pick overall) of the New England Patriots and played for the team from 1986-87.

UNIVERSITY AND MEDIA

BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of nearly 14,700 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

Boston College has grown not just in size, but also in stature and diversity. Today, it is ranked 31st among national universities by US News & World Report. Its Graduate School of Social Work is listed among the nation's top 10, also by US News, while the graduate programs of its Lynch School of Education are among the top 20 and its Connell School of Nursing and Law School among the top 30. In addition, the Carroll School of Management is ranked ninth in Bloomberg/BusinessWeek's "Top Undergraduate Business Programs 2012." Boston College is among the nation's most selective universities, with approximately 34,000 applications received for its 2,250-member class of 2016, and is numbered among the top American private research universities.

After more than a century of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes Reverend William P. Leahy, SJ, who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transforming experience for young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie

Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20, also by US News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need, whether in Boston or Belize. For example, each year, BC undergraduates give some 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while more than 650 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in mind, body and soul. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports — all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level — and perennially has one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in Division IA.

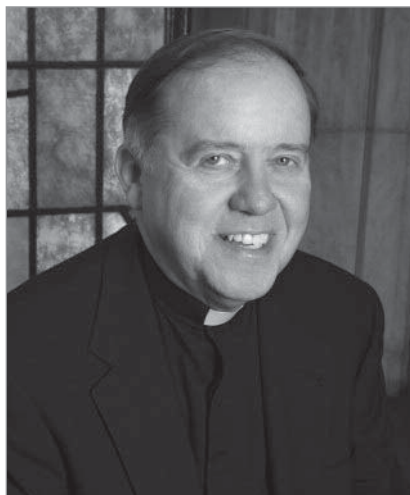

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Sloan Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; and Weston Observatory.

William P. Leahy, S.J., became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, he grew up on his family's farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of college at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. Between 1975 and 1979, he studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, Calif., earning a master's degree in divinity and a master's degree in sacred theology while there. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has become one of the nation's best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, BC's endowment, sponsored research grants and student financial aid have more than doubled, and the percentage of student applicants accepted has fallen from 41 percent to 27 percent, while SAT scores have risen by more than 160 points. In addition, more than 100 full-time faculty members have been added, minority student enrollment in undergraduate programs has climbed from 18 percent to 28 percent and annual cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to $100 million.

During his presidency, undergraduate applications to Boston College have grown from 16,500 to more than 34,000, making BC one of the 10 most — applied to private universities in the United States. Currently, the University enrolls students from all 50 states and 80 countries, and its undergraduates have earned more than 300 prestigious fellowships, including two Rhodes Scholarships. Student-athletes at BC succeed in balancing the demands of academics and athletics, and BC consistently ranks among those universities with the highest NCAA graduation rates.

Following a comprehensive assessment and planning effort by the Boston College community, in 2007 the University announced a 10-year Strategic Plan that will build on Boston College's strengths and accomplishments of the past and will focus additional resources on undergraduate liberal arts education and formation, as well as integrated science research and teaching. The University also intends to increasingly apply the strengths of its professional schools to resolving critical societal issues, and foster even more international links. In addition, Boston College intends to remain faithful to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage and to become the leading Catholic university and theological center in the world.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS BRAD BATES

Brad Bates has spent his first year as Boston College's Director of Athletics meeting with countless student-athletes, coaches, faculty, staff, fans and other constituents while leading BC Athletics through a strategic planning process aimed at ensuring its growth and success for future generations.

"Boston College offers a world-class education with first-rate athletics in one of the nation's best cities," he said, "And its Jesuit/Catholic tradition demands that we seek in ways that better the human condition and promote student development."

After taking the reins in October 2012, he immediately conducted a thorough review of the football program that culminated in the hiring of Steve Addazio as head coach. In announcing Addazio's hiring, Bates called him "one of the most energized, passionate people I've ever been around. His enthusiasm is contagious."

Earlier this year, Bates announced sweeping changes in football game-day parking, pre-game hospitality, game atmosphere and customer service, to be implemented this season. The changes were based on feedback from current and former season ticketholders who attended two "town hall" style meetings and more than 1,400 responses to a follow-up survey.

"We have been listening, and the message from our fans is clear," Bates said. "We need to improve in some key areas. Our message back to our fans is that we will strive to present the best gameday experience in the ACC. The input we heard most centered around parking, hospitality options, regulation enforcement, customer service and in-game entertainment. Our goal is to do the best we can to improve in these areas and others as quickly as possible, then continue to find new ways to enhance the game-day experience."

Recently, Bates led his senior staff in the development of a long-range strategic plan for BC Athletics that includes a defined vision and mission statement and blueprint for student-athlete development, graduation and competitive success. Details of the plan will be announced in early fall.

Bates came to BC after 10 successful seasons as Athletics Director at Miami (Ohio) University. Bates oversaw a program that featured the school's first back-to-back football bowl game appearances in nearly 30 years (2003-2004) and two Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships in 2003 and 2010. Under his direction, 14 of Miami's 18 teams won at least one conference championship, including football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, soccer, cross-country and field hockey. The RedHawks men's ice hockey team won a Central Collegiate Hockey Association championship and appeared in two consecutive NCAA Frozen Fours, including the national championship game in 2009. In addition, Bates implemented retention strategies to raise student-athlete graduation rates, achieving an overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 89 percent in 2011,

Oct. 9, 2012: Boston College named Brad Bates as its new director of athletics.

while also raising private funds to upgrade Miami University's athletics facilities, including a complete renovation of Yager Football Stadium and a new ice hockey arena and softball field.

Prior to being named director of athletics at Miami, Bates served as senior associate AD at Vanderbilt University, where he had held positions of increasing responsibility within the athletics department between 1985-2002. In addition to overseeing the administration of all 15 sports, Bates supervised the athletics department's budget, while leading its marketing, development, licensing and Title IX compliance efforts.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, where he began as a walk-on defensive back before earning a football scholarship under legendary coach Bo Schembechler, Bates holds a master's degree in education from Michigan and a doctorate in education from Vanderbilt. He was also a member of the faculty at Miami University, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in sports administration.

Boston College President William P. Leahy, S.J., praised Bates, who previously served as president of the NCAA Division IA Athletic Directors' Association, as an experienced and respected leader in collegiate athletics administration who possesses the background and vision to lead Boston College athletics in the years to come. "Brad is thoughtful, a proven leader, and someone who understands and supports Boston College's commitment to excellence in both academics and athletics," Leahy said.

At Boston College, Bates is responsible for one of the nation's premier athletics programs with 750 student-athletes competing in 31 varsity sports. A perennial leader in NCAA student-athlete graduation rates, BC student-athletes continue to be national leaders in volunteer service. Boston College won the National Student-Athlete Advisory Committee Award of Excellence in 2010 in recognition of the community service endeavors of student-athletes.

A native of Michigan, Bates and his wife, Michele, were active members in the Miami University and local community, serving as volunteers with Special Olympics, the American Red Cross, Meals on Wheels and the Community Reading Program.

With a capacity of 44,500 maroon-and-gold-clad fans, Alumni Stadium is the home of the Eagles. The current version of Alumni Stadium opened in the fall of 1995.

The roots of Alumni Stadium and on-campus football at Boston College date back to 1915, when the original Alumni Stadium was dedicated. The facility was located on middle campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

As Boston College enjoyed more and more football success in the 1930s and 1940s, the Eagles moved a majority of their home games to Boston's two major league baseball stadiums, Fenway Park and Braves Field (now Nickerson Field on the Boston University campus).

On Jan. 23, 1957, Boston College president Joseph R.N. Maxwell, S.J., announced that a new Alumni Stadium would be built on the BC campus as football no longer would be allowed in Fenway Park. A $250,000 campaign followed and on Sept. 26, 1957, the Eagles played host to Navy in the first game on the site of the present Alumni Stadium before a sell-out crowd of 26,000-plus. The new stadium was constructed in an amazing span of 156 days. The game was arranged by then-United States Senator John F. Kennedy, but Navy spoiled the home opener with a 46-6 win.

In 1971, Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats and artificial turf and lights were installed. Alumni Stadium was rebuilt again in 1988 as matching upper decks and a new press box were added. These renovations were part of the building of Conte Forum.

New scoreboards and instant replay screens, a new and improved lighting system, a state-of-the-art public address system, new concessions and restroom facilities and a beautiful brick and glass exterior façade combine to make Alumni Stadium one of the finest football facilities in the nation. BC installed a state-of-the-art FieldTurf surface in the summer of 2004.

The scenic Chestnut Hill stadium, with the Boston skyline offering a splendid background in the distance, heightens the excitement and enthusiasm that is part of every Boston College home game.

ASTROTURF ADDED

During the summer of 2012, the existing artificial surface was replaced with an AstroTurf GameDay Grass 3D60H field. This custom-designed AstroTurf surface features the all new Horseshoe fiber. The fiber's horseshoe shape features two end columns with a thicker diameter. The design imparts mechanical memory so that the fiber remains upright longer. The Horseshoe fiber continues to spring back to its original configuration, even after years of heavy foot traffic or exposure to ultra-violet radiation.

A study at Michigan State University, funded by NFL Charities, found that AstroTurf GameDay Grass systems had performance values more like natural grass than any other synthetic product measured. In extensive testing, the Horseshoe fiber performs most like natural grass from ball roll, to slide resistance, to the biomechanical function of cleats penetrating and releasing properly. From an aesthetics standpoint, the fields look amazing. Making it even better is the fact that the football lines and logos are prefabricated and manufactured as part of the field, so the look is consistent.

YAWKEY CENTER

In March 2005, Boston College football staff and players as well as the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes moved into the Yawkey Athletics Center, BC's new $27 million, 72,000-square-foot facility located behind the north end zone of Alumni Stadium. It includes new football offices, meeting and breakout rooms, locker rooms, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment room, theater-style classrooms, recruiting and player lounges.

The building also features the Murray Family Function Room, a multi-function room larger than the Shea Room that benefits the entire BC campus. After viewing the company's impressive work at North Carolina, North Carolina State and Virginia Tech, BC contracted with DJS Design of Charlotte, N.C., for concept, design and construction of a football museum.

Located in the main entry lobby, the museum features a soaring bronze eagle atop a lighted granite pedestal as its centerpiece. A multimedia kiosk will enable visitors to watch video highlights of great games and players in BC football history. Visitors will be allowed to touch and have photos taken with Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy, which is displayed in the open with no glass enclosure.

BC received a commitment of $15 million from the Yawkey Foundation to help fund the new building and other athletics-related improvements to enhance intercollegiate, intramural and club sports. Other benefactors generously donated the rest of the money needed to complete the construction, making the Yawkey Center the first structure on the BC campus to be built entirely with private funds.

Completion of the Yawkey Center created a domino effect of facilities improvements for sports other than football. Once the football and Learning Resources staffs had completed their moves, workers began a multi-million dollar renovation to Conte Forum. The construction provided new office and locker room space for many of BC's 31 varsity men's and women's sports as well as new office space for much of the administrative staff. Women's basketball moved into a new suite of offices shortly thereafter, and the old football locker room has been converted into five new locker rooms for women's sports. Many coaches and their assistants who had been working in cramped conditions have been relocated to new offices in the South end zone.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Boston College media relations office is pleased to work with members of the media to meet their needs covering our football program.

Credentials

Credentials for all Boston College home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Please direct credential requests, at least two weeks in advance of all home games, to Chris Cameron, associate athletics director/media relations (cameroch@bc.edu), or Tim Clark, assistant director/media relations (timothy.clark@bc.edu).

Please include your name, affiliation, address, cell phone and email address on all requests.

Boston College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be issued only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover Boston College on a regular basis. Otherwise, additional television/radio stations, weekly newspapers and Internet services will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis. Assignment of working press, scouting seats and photo access will be allocated according to the following priorities:

1. Frequency of coverage of teams involved;
2. Deadline and transmission requirements; and
3. Circulation.

If time permits, credentials will be mailed; they also may be picked up in the Media Relations office. All others may be claimed at the Media Will Call window at Gate C.

Press Parking

Press parking is located on the top level of the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. A limited number of parking passes will be available for each game. It is recommended that parking pass holders arrive no later than one hour prior to kickoff to ensure a parking space.

Media members holding press parking passes must enter through the main gate of the University on Commonwealth Avenue and follow the signs for the Media Parking area.

Press Hospitality

Food and refreshments are served approximately two hours prior to kickoff in the Alumni Stadium Pressbox.

Internet Access

Wireless Internet access is available throughout the Alumni Stadium pressbox. To gain access to the secure network, connect to a wired network jack or the wireless network called "BostonCollege." Open a web browser and type <http://www.bc.edu>. Follow the network activation steps and you will be asked to restart your machine.

Press Facilities

Located on the west (campus) side of the Alumni Stadium playing field, the BC press box features seats for writers and scouts, a network television broadcast area, five radio booths and a photo deck. Writers, scouts and game operations personnel will be assigned to the sixth floor level of the press box and television film crews, radio crews and home and visiting coaches will be on the fifth floor level.

Photographers/Videographers

Photographers and videographers are always welcome at Boston College games, and will be permitted to work along the sidelines, except for the marked area reserved for the team personnel only. This rule is strictly enforced. Photographers and videographers must wear issued identification vests, which may be obtained with a valid photo I.D. at the Media Will Call booth at Gate C.

Photographer/Videographer Work Area

A photography/videography work area is located in the Media Suite on the first floor of Conte forum, adjacent to the west concourse of Alumni Stadium. Wireless Internet connections, Ethernet ports, telephone and electrical access, along with work space, are provided. Check with the Media Will Call attendant at Gate C for directions.

Radio Broadcasts

Radio booths are available for the visiting commercial and student stations on the fifth floor of the press box. Telephone lines have been pre-installed in each booth. Stations wishing to broadcast a game should contact the BC Media Relations office at 617-552-3004 at least two weeks prior to the contest. The fee is $75 per line.

Television Broadcasts

A 21-by-21 permanent network television broadcast booth is located at the midfield point on the fifth floor of the press box. This location, along with permanent camera locations on the 20-yard-line points, the north end zone and the field, have been pre-wired with multiple tri-axial cable drops. Any network production unit televising a game or event from either Alumni Stadium or Conte Forum must use this pre-installed cable.

Postgame Interviews

The Boston College locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games, home and away. Head coach Steve Addazio and requested players will be available following a brief cooling-off period. Addazio will address the media in the football meeting room in the Yawkey Athletics Center. BC press box personnel will provide instructions for accessing the area. Media wishing to interview players should notify appropriate members of the BC Media Relations staff prior to the conclusion of the game. Every effort will be made to bring requested players to the interview room.

Visiting teams will conduct their postgame interviews in the Conte Forum Media Center, located on the first floor and accessible via the north elevator.

Student-Athlete Interview Policies

All interviews with Boston College football players or coaches must be arranged through the media relations office. It is suggested that 48 hours notice be given for an interview request. The Media Relations Office will arrange an interview time that is mutually convenient for the player and media representative. Players are not to be called in their dormitory rooms, nor should they be contacted via cell phone, email or through social media channels. Rather, players will return telephone calls to members of the media. Players will not be asked to miss classroom time for interviews.

BOSTON COLLEGE IMG RADIO NETWORK

IMG College, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College football. For the ninth straight season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined in broadcast booth by expert analyst Pete Cronan. Boston College fans can listen to the IMG Sports Radio Network on flagship station WEEI, 93.7 FM, any one of 13 additional stations throughout New England, or globally on Sirius/XM Satellite radio. Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet and available on your mobile device free of charge via bceagles.com.

Meterparel is entering his ninth season as the voice of Boston College football and is also entering his fourth season calling Boston College basketball. The Weston, Mass., native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte, N.C. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-12. Meterparel called Harvard University Football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. He was also the voice of the NE Revolution. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast sportscaster of the year in 2007. Jon and his wife Heather are the proud parents of sons Ben and Nick.

Jon Meterparel

Cronan, a star defensive tackle and inside linebacker at Boston College who captained the 1976 Eagle entry, begins his 26th year as the color analyst for Boston College football. A second-round pick of the Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College IMG Radio Network since 1988 and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsik, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke and Jon Meterparel.
